

House Resolution No. 733

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those former Show-Me State residents who have answered the patriotic call to national service through their enlistment and leadership in any of the branches that make up the United States military; and

Whereas, Constance H. Davis has attained considerable distinction as a Colonel in the United States Air Force who was born in Summerville, South Carolina, and currently serves at Peterson Air Force Base in Colorado; and

Whereas, the former Commander of the 509th Mission Support Group at Whiteman Air Force Base in Missouri, Colonel Constance Davis will draw her military career to a close on March 20, 2008, in well-deserved retirement; and

Whereas, in addition to the two years that she spent at Whiteman Air Force Base, Colonel Constance Davis accepted duties and responsibilities at Vandenberg Air Force Base in California, Little Rock Air Force Base in Arkansas, Lackland Air Force Base in Texas, Barksdale Air Force Base in Louisiana, Langley Air Force Base in Virginia, Maxwell Air Force Base in Alabama, Howard Air Force Base in Panama, Charleston Air Force Base in South Carolina, RAND Corporation in California, and Shaikh Isa Air Base in Bahrain; and

Whereas, Colonel Constance Davis earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in broadcast journalism from the University of South Carolina and a Master of Arts degree in human relations from Louisiana Technical University; received her officer commission through Officer Training School at Lackland Air Force Base; attended Squadron Officer School and Air Command and Staff College; and was a RAND Air Force Fellow; and

Whereas, Colonel Constance Davis is the recipient of such military awards as a Bronze Star, the Meritorious Service Medal with three oak leaf clusters, an Air Force Commendation Medal with three oak leaf clusters, the Air Force Achievement Medal, an Air Force Outstanding Unit Award with five oak leaf clusters, a Combat Readiness Medal, and the National Defense Service Medal:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to salute Colonel Constance Davis and to convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes as she partakes of the special opportunities and pleasures traditionally associated with the golden years of retirement; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Colonel Constance H. Davis of Peterson Air Force Base in Colorado.
